8. Any other comments, thoughts or feelings?

Seeing other foundation dentists presenting cases. Interesting to see how treatment planning differs across each of us.

Good opportunity for me to reflect on how my approach to dentistry differs to that of peers. As well as comparing my presentation style to others.

I think I tend to rush through detail heavy slides which could often leave the audience not enough time to take in information.

Learning to talk slower to patients when explaining more complex treatment plans. Allowing patients room to ask questions when they do not understand particular points.

Streamlines communication with patients > increased confidence

It is important that you keep this certificate for your records - the General Dental Council (GDC) may request details of the courses you have attended. Please complete the reflection questions to comply with the GDC verifiable requirements.
